

WHAT'S HOT ON STUFF WE'RE BUZZING ABOUT ON OUR WEBSITE
EW.COM

DHARMA VAN
$47,500

DESMOND'S FAIL-SAFE KEY AND 'JOE INMAN' DOG TAG
$11,000

JIN'S WEDDING RING
$4,750

JACK'S OUTFIT FROM THE FINALE
$9,000

HURLEY'S WINNING LOTTO TICKET
$5,500

TWO CRATES OF VIRGIN MARY STATUES
$5,000

Auctioning off the last pieces of Lost

ONLY IN THE WORLD of Lost would a VW bus be worth more than a vintage Camaro. At the official sale of Lost memorabilia—run by auction house Profiles in History, on Aug. 21 and 22—the iconic Dharma van earned the highest bid, a whopping $47,500. (Hurley's Camaro netted 20 grand.) More than 1,100 lots of props and costumes from the ABC series were up for bid online and in a Santa Monica warehouse, including the time-shifting donkey wheel (which went for $22,500), a pilot script signed by J.J. Abrams and Damon Lindelof ($15,000), and Sawyer's copy of Watership Down ($2,750). And to the person who paid $27,500 for Jacob's lighthouse mechanism: Good luck getting that thing to work again. —Adam B. Vary

LOCKE'S WHEELCHAIR
$3,250

DANIEL FARADAY'S NOTE-FILLED JOURNAL
$20,000

12 CANS OF DHARMA BEER
$5,000