garnered. The biggest bid went for Harrison Ford's "hero" blaster from BLADE RUNNER ($270,000, owned by our publicist pal Jeff Walker). Other notable items that brought in some big bucks were an original FRANKENSTEIN one-sheet movie poster ($216,000), the original Creature from the Black Lagoon hero "Gill Man" mask from REVENGE OF THE CREATURE ($84,000) and Arnold Schwarzenegger's Mr. Freeze costume from BATMAN & ROBIN ($72,000).

Harrison Ford's "Voight Kampff" costume, worn for a BLADE RUNNER interrogation, nabbed $48,000.

Other highlights included an aerial Hunter/Killer from TERMINATOR ($66,000), Derek Mears' Jason Voorhees costume from the FRIDAY THE 13TH remake ($54,000) and Ray Park's Darth Maul lightsaber from THE PHANTOM MENACE ($48,000). As for the Forrest J Ackerman Estate Collection, our old friend Forry's METROPOLIS Maria robot sold for $48,000, as did Bela Lugosi's DRACULA ring. Lugosi's "vampire" cape—which he wore in THE RAVEN, THE RETURN OF THE VAMPIRE, THE WHISPERING SHADOW and his final performance in PLAN 9 FROM OUTER SPACE—sold for $39,000.
